

EVANSVILLE POLICE DEPARTMENT FOUNDATION

The Evansville Police Department Foundation exists to award financial grants to the Evansville Police Department for specialized equipment, education, collaborative community programs, and for the support of its personnel.

2018 “Trade”Scholarship Application

The Evansville Police Department Foundation strives to support the Evansville Police Department’s personnel through the distribution of college scholarship dollars. This year the Evansville Police Department Foundation will award two $2,000 scholarships. Scholarship dollars are awarded to two students who have met the qualifications listed below:

- Applicants must have the following EPD Family Relationship: a child, grandchild, stepchild or step-grandchild under the age of 25 of an active, retired or deceased EPD employee.
- High School Graduate (or will graduate by June)
- Applicants may not receive a scholarship in two consecutive years with a maximum of two times during their undergraduate studies from the Evansville Police Department Foundation.
- Scholarships are to be used for required tuition, fees, books and required supplies at any accredited post-secondary institution that exists to teach skills related to a specific certification or technical certification. Including programs in the areas of technology, telecommunication, health sciences or nursing that require work experience or on the job training.
